

In addition to the attached statement, I must stress my major concern that Corporate media companies and their executive can create propaganda like this. To air something like on 10/21 right before the election "as if" it is news is not acceptable. This is a smear campaign and nothing more.